The Old Dominions, who were in the lead at the time of the accident, continued over the course and were awarded the sleeve, and attempted to put him the race. The race bid fair to be a fine under arrest, but Mr. Rowen resisted one, both crews being strong, and showing excellent condition. It may be run over at some subsequent regatta. The crews were made up as follows: Old ns-Herbert, 1; Burke, 2; Bryant, 3; Bryan, stroke. Analostans—ing which he was clubbed and put under Burke, 1; Whipley, 2; Sizer, 3; Nevious, stroke. The Old Dominions made a bad referred to attention given Mr. Rowen start and lost over a boat's length but soon got down to work, and had taken the lead when the accident occurred. They returned to their boat house late on Saturday night and were warmly welcomed by the other members of the

THE ROWEN CASE.

mas Rowen Fined Ten Dollars crowd. for Interfering with Officers-Mayor to Investigate Charges Against Otficers of Unnecessary Cruelty Next

neer Thomas Rowen, who was charged with interfering with officers while in the discharge of their duty on the old fair

At U grounds Saturday night, July 11, and incidentally the circumstances in connection with the assault alleged to have been committed upon the defendant by Officers Allen, Smith, Roberts and Lyles. Mr. John M. Johnson represented Mr.

Officer Allen was the first witness for four-oared race between the Old Dominions, of Alexandria, and the Gazette a week ago. He said there was Analostans, of Georgetown, an accident which caused the shell of the Analostans who had purchased tickets for a circus who had purchased tickets for a circus could enter on the ten cent tickets, that he was accosted by the prisoner and reprimanded, the defendant accusing week. him of attempting to decide the case and terming him a specimen bum police-man. Later Mr. Rowen returned and looking at the officer told him he would endeavor to have him (Allen) elected Mayor. The officer then caught him by and seized his stick, the officer retaining only the string. Officer Smith rushed to his rescue and was knocked down by Mr. Rowen. Officer Roberts ran up when the prisoner fought the trio, during which he was clubbed and put under later, the washing of his wounds, conducting him to the station house, &c. Dr. T. M. Jones, who rendered sur-gical aid, testified to Mr. Rowen's condition. He had one serious cut on the right side of the forehead, four or five other wounds on different parts of his head, the evidence of a severe blow on the nose and an injured arm. He was perfectly sober when the doctor saw him and was weak from the loss of blood. Officer Smith followed. His evidence corroborated in the main toat of the preceding witness, save that he alleged that Mr. Rowen observed that if the circusman had given fifteen or twenty tickets to the policemen there would have been to interference on their part. Mr. Roberts's testimony varied but little from that of the preceding wit-

the space reserved for teams. She will carry about ten average size teams. The Rowen had remarked to him in another part of the fair grounds that Officers Allen, Smith and Roberts were three lighted by electricity. The upper deck contains the two wheelhouses, the crew's quarters, the lifeboats, and rafts, and, was in progress between Rowen and the three officers he (Lyles) approached when Mr. Rowen drew back and said "here's another." Mr. Lyles positively denied having struck Mr. Rowen.
Mr. Richard Kuhn testified concern ing the incident in regard to the tickets which led up to the assault and arrest. He said, among other things, that ex-Policeman Wilkerson rushed in during of the Columbia will be brought to this dont hit him any more." Mr. Wilkersite and cleaned out in the next few son and Mr. William Mankin had hold the encounter and said "For God's sake days, after which it will be towed to Baltimore, where the boat will be rebuilt. The new steamer went to Washington this morning under her own Rowen, including Mr. Lyles. Mr. Rowen was on his knees at one time when the officers were beating him. Several witnesses followed who told what they heard Mr. Rowen say in regard to the policemen when he was in Mr. James Kelley's saloon several minutes before his arrest. dence it would seem that Mr. Rowen after the first colloquy with Officer Allen went to the saloon and white there made uncomplimentary remarks about Officers Allen, Smith and Roberts. Returning later to the fair ground Mr. Rowen told

Mr. Allen he should be elected Mayor which remark precipitated the difficulty, Carley Jett told what portion of the trouble he witnessed. Among other things he said he heard Mr. Rowen say it was a shame for four men to beat one man. He was willing to go with one. French Cleveland said he saw three officers beating Mr. Rowen, Officer Lyles had his stick raised. He did not Mr. Rowen subsequently took the stand. He described the incidents in connection with the sale of the tickets, saying small boys were buying ten cent tickets and turning them over to larger boys and when the latter attempted to pass into the show on them they were refused admission. He acknowledged telling Mr. Allen he had no right to decide the issue which has been raised. If anything was wrong he should arrest parties against whom charges were urged and let the Mayor try the case. Mr. Rowen said he subsequently went to Kelly's saloon, drank a glass of beer and having purchased a ticket started with an acquaintance toward the entrance to the circus. In passing in he saw Officer Allen and turning to him said, "We'll elect you Mayor next time." Mr. Allen called him an ugly name and seized him by the arm, raising his stick at the same time, when officer Smith rushed up and struck him. He then threw up his hands and endeavored to protect himself when he was knocked partly down and while on his knees was struck on the nose with what he believed were brass knuckles. Mr. Rowen said all four officers struck him, and that he ministration. was beaten while endeavoring to escape under the ropes, he imploring the offi-cers in the meantime not to hit him. Mr. Rowen claimed that if he struck anybody it was in self-defense.

Mr. A. T. Fewell corroborated Mr. Rowen's statement in the main, and in addition said he saw Officer Lyles approach, strike Mr. Rowen and then take a position back of the crowd. He also Excursion.

At the close of the testimony Mr. Johnson said he would submit the case without argument.

Mayor Simpson, in summoning up the case, said it divided itself into two parts. Mr. Rowen was guilty of interference with an officer in the discharge of his duty, and the outrageous conduct on the part of the officers an officer in the discharge c. his duty,

The following is a summary of the while those over that age were charged twenty cents. Witness stated Gazette, it will be remembered, publish-

The charge against Thomas Rowen was for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties under a Corporation warrant and he was fined ten dollars by the Mayor. There is no appeal from the Mayor's decision. The Mayor, however, stated that he had separated this investigation into two parts; that he would have to sustain his officers by fining Mr. Rowen ten dollars; that the evidence showed such an outrageous assault by three policemen upon Mr. Rowen that he would, on next Monday, take up the case and dispose of it. This action of the Mayor's was upon his own motion. In regard to the action of the Mayor to investigate, the audience and the counsel who represented the accused, and, in fact, all persons who heard the testimony, agreed with the Mayor that it was a most brutal, cruel, outrageous assault by the police officers upon a citizen. In regard to the Mayor's action in fining Rowen, almost all of those who heard the evidence and the counsel who represented Mr. Rowen, agree that the Mayor's judgment was erroneous in the matter. In the first place the evidence showed that the officers were not discharging any duty toward preserving the peace and order of the community, as there was no disorder or breach of the peace being committed at the time that Mr. Rowen with his friend passed Officer Allen and made the remark, namely. "We are going to elect you Mayor tomorrow" which caused Officer Allen and made the remark, namely. "We are going to elect you Mayor tomorrow" which caused Officer Allen and made the remark that he made to Officer Allen and made the remark had to then Mayor, a cording to the evidence of seven witnesses, by Officer Lyles as well. This was the whole provocation for their assault upon Rowen, the remark that he made to Officer Allen as he started to enter the show. It appears, however, that about half an hour before his Officer allen and the show people. Mr. Rowen overheard what passed between them and said to the officer had had a remark that of the pace, is discharging his duty as a cons

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea "About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again temporary renet, but it came back again, and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertise-ment of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testim mial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful.
